Peek Inside the Book

In the world we grew up in, our most ingrained economic and political habit was growth; its the reflex were going to have to temper, and its going to be tough. Bill McKibben, Eaarth: Making a Life on a Tough New Planet

Reader's Opinions

"Americans eat 200 pounds of grain directly, and 1,800 pounds that's been run through an animal first. By contrast, the average Chinese eats 850 pounds of grain with his chopsticks, and only 154...

Bill McKibben is a world-famous environmentalist. He is the founder of 350.org, a very big organization whose purpose is to solve the climate crisis. Without a doubt, he has written a very scary book. Well worth reading, to help put climate change into context. The main point of this excellent book, is that our planet is not the same...
